Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue invites the submission of high-quality conceptual and empirical papers to systematically and comprehensively advance the connections between employability and career success. Possible questions to be addressed by papers in the Special Issue include, but are not limited to:

How are employability and career success currently being conceptualised and measured?

How does COVID-19 impact the perception of employability and career success?

What is the relationship between employability and career success?

How are employability and career success related to career stages and individual differences?

Deadline for manuscript
submissions:

31 December 2021

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer-reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.

Author Benefits

Open Access:—free for readers, with article processing charges \(APC\) paid by authors or their institutions.

High visibility: indexed by the Science Citation Index Expanded and Social Sciences Citation Index (Web of Science), as well as Scopus and other databases.

Rapid Publication: manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision provided to authors approximately 14.5 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.9 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2020).
