

The Faculty of Humanities and Cultural Studies invites applications for the position of

Associate Professor (W 2 tenure-track W 3 salary level) of Art history with special consideration of artistic techniques as a limited-tenure civil servant to be filled as of the start of the winter semester 2021–2022. Following a positive evaluation conducted at the University of Bamberg after six years' time, the successful candidate's position will be commuted to a fully tenured W 3 professorship without a public call for additional applications.

The successful candidate will be responsible for the following:

Art history with special consideration of artistic techniques. A specialist focus on the early modern period or modernity is also desired. The holder of the post is expected to contribute to the Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes in art history and participate in the development of new curricula. In addition, the successful candidate is also expected to be involved in contributing to the internationalisation of the Faculty's course offering, to support its international cooperation and exchange programmes and take on duties in the area of academic self-government.

The relevant qualifications consist of a completed academic degree, pedagogical aptitude, a particular talent for academic work generally substantiated by the quality of a doctoral degree, and, in addition to this, further academic achievements. Additional academic credentials must be certified by a Habilitation or equivalent academic qualification which may also have been obtained through activities outside of higher education or within the scope of an assistant professorship.

Concerning tenured positions as a civil servant ("Beamtenverhältnis"), the candidate must be under the age of 52 years at the time of appointment (for exceptional cases see Art. 10 Abs. 3 Satz 2 BayHSchPG).

This tenure-track professorship is sponsored by the German Federal Government-Länder Tenure-Track Programme. The aim of this programme is to increase the predictability and transparency of the path to a professorship for researchers in an early stage of their career.

Therefore, the University likes to encourage also researchers who have just completed their doctorate to apply for this assistant professor position.

The selection process shall be conducted according to the provisions of the Bayerisches Hochschulpersonalgesetz (Bavarian Higher Education Employment Act) concerning the appointment of professors and assistant professors (Art. 18) as well as the statutes of the Otto Friedrich University Bamberg for regulating the procedure regarding adjustable appointment options. If the general employment requirements are met, the selected candidate will be employed as a limited-tenure civil servant for an initial period of three years. Following a positive evaluation, a further three-year extension is intended.

The Faculty is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from female candidates. Where candidates are otherwise equally qualified, preference will be given to candidates with disabilities.

The University of Bamberg has been certified by the Hertie Foundation as a family-friendly university and is committed to taking measures to help reconcile work and family life. The university is committed to promoting gender equality in the workplace.

The University of Bamberg is a member of the regional Dual Career Network (DCNN) and provides support for the spouses or partners of newly appointed staff. More information can be found at <http://www.dualcareer-nordbayern.de>.

Applications from abroad are particularly welcome. Both the ability and willingness to teach in English are required.

Applications including the usual documents (CV, list of publications and courses taught, copies of academic transcripts and certificates) are to be submitted in either German or English, and generally in electronic form, to the Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Cultural Studies 96045 Bamberg, bewerbungen.guk@uni-bamberg.de, no later than 1 October 2021.
