

Otto-Friedrich-Universität Bamberg

Summer Term 2019

Introduction to the Legal Framework of Doctoral Studies and Good Academic Practice

BAMBERG
GRADUATE SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

Venue: FG1 00.06
Instructor: Ass. jur. Florian Kühhorn

Dates: Wednesday, May 29, 14.00 – 17.00

Registration: Please register at the BAGSS Office or courses.bagss@uni-bamberg.de until April 29.

Participants

Required course for all incoming BAGSS students

Program

The mandatory course offers an overview on the various legal prerequisites of doctoral studies in the Free State of Bavaria. The participants of the course will be provided with detailed information on the legal procedure of doctoral studies based on the Bavarian University and College Act and the doctoral degree regulations of the faculties of the University. The course broaches as well the questions of academic fraud and plagiarism having arisen within the last few years as the basic principles of copyright law and good academic practice.

Mr Kuehhorn asks the participants kindly to forward questions until 22.05.2019 via e-mail dekanatsassistent.sowi@uni-bamberg.de