Workshop: Computational Text Analysis in Party Research

Bamberg Graduate School of Social Sciences (BAGSS)
September 25–26, 2025

We are pleased to invite abstract submissions for the upcoming workshop Computational Text Analysis in Party Research, to be held at the Bamberg Graduate School of Social Sciences (BAGSS) on September 25–26, 2025.

This two-day event will include collaborative sessions with presentations and discussions as well as an expert panel, featuring the following keynote speakers:

- Professor Carsten Schwemmer, Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich
- Professor Theresa Gessler, European University Viadrina
- Professor Agnieszka Kwiatkowska, SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities
- Dr. Alexander Herzog, University of Bamberg

We aim to bring together scholars working at the intersection of political science and computational text analysis in party research. We invite submissions from PhD students as well as experienced researchers, who engage with political representation, party competition, intra-party dynamics, political discourse, or similar areas using computational tools for text analysis (ranging from dictionary-based methods to machine-learning approaches).

Please submit your abstract (max. 200 words) by June 30 to viktoriia.muliavka@uni-bamberg.de.

We look forward to receiving your submissions and welcoming you to Bamberg for a vibrant and interdisciplinary discussion! In case you have any questions, please contact us via viktoriia.muliavka@uni-bamberg.de or david.beck@uni-bamberg.de.
