

Preliminary Program

8th Transnational RHINE Conference
Cultural Industries along the Rhine: Nationalism versus Internationalism
Brentanohaus, Winkel and Tageszentrum Bundesbank, Eltville
19-21 May 2022***

Thursday 19, Brentanohaus, Winkel

15.00-15.15 Welcome

15.15-15.30 Introduction: Ralf Banken (Univ. Frankfurt am Main), Ben Wubs (Univ. Rotterdam),

15.30-16.00 Session 1: Wine

Rod Phillips (Carleton Univ.): The Reception and Importance of Rhine Wines on European and International Markets – especially in the 19th Century

Henning Türk (ZZF Potsdam): Romanticism, Regional Identity and Business Interests: The marketing of Palatinate High Quality Wine in the Second Half of the 19th Century

Comment: Ann-Sophie Overkamp (Univ. Tübingen)

16.00-19.00 Guided Tour through the Brentanohaus (requested)

19.30 Dinner Lecture: Knut Bergmann (Cologne): Mit Wein Staat machen (Making State with Wine)

Friday 20, Tageszentrum Bundesbank, Eltville

9.00-10.00 Ride to Eltville

10.30-12.00 Session 2: Textiles

Stefanie van der Kerkhof (Univ. Mannheim): The Rhenish Silk Industry, the Bauhaus and International Style - From Avantgarde Culture to High-Tech-Architecture (1920-1990)

Ben Wubs (Univ. Rotterdam): Fashion and Textiles in the Rhine Economy after World War II

Comment: Christian Kleinschmidt (Univ. Marburg)

13.00-14:30 Session 3: Security Cultures

Nicolai Hannig (Univ. Darmstadt): The Rhine Correction. Hydraulic Politics and the Myth of Tulla since the 19th Century.

Joep Schenk (Utrecht Univ.): Berlin 1885: where European Entrepreneurial Interests and 'universal' Legal Principles meet in shaping the Colonial River.

Comment: Beatrice De Graaf (Utrecht Univ.)

15.00-16.30 Session 4: Crossing Borders

Werner Scheltjens (Univ. Bayreuth): From automatic handwritten Text Recognition to online Database: Results of a Pilot Study on the Schenkenschanz Customs Registers (1630-1810).

Guido Thiemeyer (Univ. Düsseldorf): Inland Navigation in the Rhine Region during World War II

Comment Margit Schulte-Beerbühl (Univ. Düsseldorf)

16.30-19.00 Short hike into the Vineyards around

Saturday 21, Tageszentrum Bundesbank, Eltville

9.30-11.00 Session 5: Tourism

Werner Plumpe, Johanna Steinfeld (Univ. Frankfurt am Main): Wine, Romance and Masses. The long History of Rhine Tourism since the early 19th Century

Jeroen Euwe (Univ. Rotterdam): The Art Trade along the Rhine

Comment Gabriele Clemens (Univ. Saarbrücken)

11.30-12.00 Concluding Remarks: Joep Schenk (Utrecht Univ.), Eva-Maria Roelevink (Univ. Mainz), General and Project Discussion

13.00 End of the conference

* Organised with financial support of Sozial- und Wirtschaftsgeschichte, Goethe-Universität Frankfurt a.M. (Prof. Dr. Werner Plumpe), Wirtschaftsgeschichte der Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz (Jun.-Prof. Dr. Eva-Maria Roelevink), Security History Network Utrecht University (Dr. Joep Schenk), Institut für WSG Philipps-Uni. Marburg (Prof. Dr. Christian Kleinschmidt); Organisations team of this years RHINE-Conference: Prof. Dr. Ralf Banken, Dr. Joep Schenk, Dr. Eva-Maria Roelevink, Prof. Dr. Ben Wubs.