Are there any lovers of classical music among you?

Or have you ever wondered what it's really like to be a member of a world-renowned orchestra?

We'd love to invite you to experience the Bamberg Symphony Orchestra from a whole new perspective: with a backstage tour and a visit to an open rehearsal at the Bamberg Concert Hall!

Find out where rehearsals take place, how new pieces take shape, and how the conductor and musicians work together! We're delighted to organize this event for researchers from both the University of Erlangen-Nürnberg and the University of Bamberg.

Anyone who fancies a bite to eat or a drink after the rehearsal can do so: e.g., at the Plückers Restaurant, right next to the concert hall, or visit one of the many restaurants and pubs in the city center (about a 15-minute walk).

Please register by November 18, 2026 via assistenz.welcome.international@uni-bamberg.de

We have a limited number of places available and will allocate them on a first-come, first-served basis, so it's worth being quick. 😉

The Programme

We will meet at 4.10 pm at the artists' entrance to the Concert Hall Bamberg (Mußstraße 1, at the side entrance leading to the car park).

During a guided backstage tour (in English), you'll gain an insight into the goings-on behind the scenes of the orchestra. The tour lasts around 45 minutes and leads straight into the rehearsal.

The rehearsal starts at 5 pm, featuring Threnos by Krzysztof Penderecki, Symphonie n° 2 by Johannes Brahms, as well as Violin Concerto in A minor by Alexander Glazunov.

After around 75 minutes, there will be a short interval of approx. 15 minutes.

Additional information on the next page:

A few small notes for attending the rehearsal:

- Please do not eat or drink during the rehearsal.
- Photography is permitted in the hall until the rehearsal begins; after that, we ask that you refrain from taking photos or filming.
- If you do not wish to stay until the end of the rehearsal, you may leave during the interval (at around 6.15 pm).

Please always enter and leave the hall via the emergency exit, which will be shown to us.

Please do not leave the hall whilst rehearsals are in progress!

Whether you are a fan of classical music or simply curious about how the Bamberg Symphony Orchestra brings music to life – this is a great opportunity to experience it up close!

We'd love to see you there!
