

Funding of University of Bamberg Students' Research Periods Abroad

In the context of IPID4all, the line of funding Research Period Abroad (max. 3 months) for doctoral students from the University of Bamberg will be extended from 1 November 2017 to 30 June 2019.

Upcoming submission deadline: Please hand in your application by 31 October 2018

The selection of the applications will be carried out by an interfaculty panel. The earliest start of funding is January 2019.

Target Group

All doctoral students who have a first supervisor at the University of Bamberg and who are listed in the doctoral students' database are eligible candidates.

Furthermore, scholarship recipients are eligible, provided that the requested funding is not covered by the original scholarship.

Type of support

Depending on the country of origin and the duration of the stay, travel and accommodation expenses will be covered in accordance with the IPID4all travel allowance (see travel and accommodation allowance).

Documents for Application (max. 12 pages)

- cover letter (max. 3 pages) with the following information:
 - country and city of destination
 - start and duration of the stay (dates)
 - brief description of the doctoral research project
 - detailed explanation of the relevance of the stay to your doctoral research project (including detailed time schedule)
- expert opinion of the first doctoral supervisor
- CV
- written invitation from the host university, academy or institution.
