

7th Workshop on „Analysis of Incomplete Data“ (AID)

June 21st, 2019 University of Bamberg, in the building of the faculty of Social Sciences and Economics, Feldkirchenstrasse 21 in room FG1/00.08

Program

Part I: Missing Data Workshop

Instructors: Trivellore Raghunathan and Nathaniel Schenker

9:00 - 10:00 Introduction to Analysis with Missing Data

10:00 - 11:00 Introduction to Multiple Imputation

11:00 - 11:15 Coffee Break

11:15 - 12:15 Applications of MI at NCHS

12:15 - 13:15 Application of MI for Longitudinal Data

Part II: Memorial Talks by Susanne's former PhD students

14:30 - 14:40 Welcome Address

14:40 – 15:05 Jörg Drechsler: Synthetic Microdata for Establishment Surveys Under Informative Sampling: Application to the 2012 U.S. Economic Census

15:05 – 15:30 Thomas Büttner: Multiple Imputation of Censored Variables

15:30 – 15:55 Mariana Nold/ Florian Meinfelder: Logistic Regression Modeling with Unit Nonresponse Poststratification

15:55 – 16:20 Philipp Gaffert/ Jakob Gräbel: Missing data in panels: Deriving representative figures from a sample of shops

16:20 – 16:40 Coffee Break

16:40 – 17:05 Sara Bleninger: Sampling Design of the German Census 2021

17:05 – 17:30 Marcel Preising: Missing Values in Linear Dynamic Panel Models

17:30 – 18:00: Concluding Remarks and Farewell