TRAINING PLACEMENT AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ZARAGOZA (SPAIN)

The English and German Department at Zaragoza University (Spain) offers a training placement as a teaching assistant according to the Traineeship Mobility within the Eramus+ programme. The only requirement for candidates is to be a student (graduate or undergraduate) at your university. The training period will have a minimum duration of two months and a maximum of nine. The task of the trainee will be to work as teaching assistant mainly in English Language courses to reinforce conversation and oral skills under the guidance of the lecturer responsible for the course. In the case of graduate students, they may participate as teaching assistants in the Master courses, if that meets the students’ needs. In any case, the number of teaching hours assigned for the trainee is twenty-five hours per week, which will be organized in time slots arranged according to schedule.
