2. Administering the self-tests

Please administer your self-test according to the manufacturer's instructions. An instructional video as well as the instructions for use can be found here:

<https://www.uni-bamberg.de/covid19/tests/anleitungen/>

The box included in the pack serves as a tube stand. Please keep it after the first test so that you can use it for the other tests in the pack.

When administering the self-tests at home, the used test utensils can be disposed of in the normal household waste. According to the Ministry of State's guidelines, all test utensils used on-site at the university must be placed in a separate rubbish bag prior to disposal. This bag must be sealed before it can be placed in the waste bin. Appropriate bags will be provided to you at the time of collection.
