Horae Bambergenses

Summerschool for Medieval Latin

Bamberg, March 16-20, 2015

Latin in Europe From Late Antiquity up to the Renaissance

Latin heritage shaped European culture for centuries after the collapse of the Roman Empire. Latin was the language of the church, of science, of medicine and literature, and the only international idiom up to the Early Modern Age.

Horae Bambergenses provides an introduction to the Latin language down to the time of Humanism, conveys a thorough grounding in postclassical Latinity and its cultural-historical context, and points out the most important research tools for the study of Medieval and Early modern subjects via seminars and tutorials. Our goal is to achieve an in-depth introduction to Medieval Latin down to the 15th century in its specific cultural contexts.

This summer school is intended both for students of the universities of Bamberg and Erlangen as for other students who want to use the unique possibilities of the historical city of Bamberg. Completion will award a diploma (maximum 5 ECTS)

with Keynote Speaker:

Prof. Dr. Dr.h.c. Walter Berschin
(Heidelberg)
